SUBSCRIPTION:
Per Annum, in advance, $1.50.
Advertising Rates based on actual circulation. For terms, estimates, etc., apply to W. M. GILL, Managing Editor.

Advertising Rates.

Equitable Advertising Rates based on actual circulation. The advertiser gets just what he pays for—no more, no less.

ADVERTISING COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING.

On three, six or twelve months' contracts, the advertiser gets the insertion. Any number of changes made on payment of the extra cost of type setting, 10 lines (this type) to the inch. Thus an advertisement occupying three inches down the column, and running 10 weeks, on an average circulation of 500, would cost with one change of matter only $4.00.

TELEPHONE AND LITIGATION—One month or less, at special rates.

Editorial Business Notices—2 cents per line per week of circulation.
Local Business Notices—1 cent per line per week of circulation.
Special Notices—Motion type, next to advertising columns, 1/2 local rates after first insertion.

Novinger Notes.

Mr. R. Brown has recently built a store.

Novinger has three stores, one blacksmith and wagon shop, and one beer saloon.

James Wimber recently returned from Colorado. He went out there last spring in company with H. P. Short and M. S. Wimber. He reports the boys doing well.

Dr. Shively is absent at Cincinnati, Ohio, attending lectures.

Everybody out here knows that tahl will be our next judge. M. A.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Theo. Moyer and wife have returned from their summer tour in the photograph business. They visited western Missouri and eastern Kansas.

Mr. G. W. Young, of Hartford, Putnam county, gave the Graphic a short call Monday. Mr. Young is a regular reader of the Graphic.

Charley Gerhold, of Memphis, was in town Monday. Wonder what the attraction is that draws Charley hither so often.

W. E. Hes was home on a visit this week. He is on detached railroad duty.

D. C. Lord, the enthusiastic greenbacker, gave the Graphic a call Wednesday.

Mr. A. Klien, a young gentleman of Palmyra, has been visiting Kirksville friends this week.

Mr. R. F. Becktol has been confined to his residence some days from a severe hurt on the foot received while passing between two cars.

Mrs. Mary E. Applegate, of Milan, oldest daughter of Mr. John Coop, formerly of this place, died in Milan on the 7th. Her remains were brought to this city for burial.

We learn that Mrs. W. H. Freeman has gone to join her husband in Colorado.

The rumor that one of Kirksville's handsome young belles was offering to buy Garfield votes with kisses is undoubtedly a little premature. Our society reporter got himself up as a Hancocker in search of a purchaser but reports it no go.

Miss Ella Green, who has been on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. A. Dutcher, left for home Wednesday evening last.

Mrs. H. A. Butler, of Macon city, came back this week to see papa and mamma.

Mr. L. A. Davis, who has been for some time in the southwest part of the State, returned to this county a few days since.

Miss Mollie Baldwin and her sister, who have been visiting friends in this city for several months, started last Monday for Idaho, and a certain attorney in town has not been known to smile since.

S. W. Gates, lately from Illinois, now a prominent farmer of Salt River township, and an enthusiastic republican, with his wife gave us a pleasant call last Tuesday.

Mrs. Fowler and her daughter Ella, went to Quincy last Thursday.

John Still, of Walnut, has gone to the south part of the state on business, but promises to be back by the election.

LOCAL GRAPHICS

Overcoats are fashionable.

The polar wave has subsided.

Abstract of the township organization law on first page.

Read Guy Woodson's speech on the inside of this issue.

The Graphic now leads the van on circulation and popularity.

A brakeman on the Q. M. & P. had a narrow escape Monday.

The result in Indiana seems to have knocked the wind out of our local democratic sports.

We learn that two young "swigs" of the law from this place addressed a democratic meeting a few nights since, and held their audience "spell bound and dumfounded" for two hours.

Every soldier who attended the reunion ought to secure a copy of Tinsman's picture of the sham battle, as a reminder of the occasion.

Even the school children are caught in the whirlpool of politics and neglect their balls, bats and marbles to quarrel over Garfield and Hancock.

Col. L. H. Watters made many warm admirers during his visit to this place last week. His speeches were well received.

The Graphic has been compelled to turn away considerable job work recently. Arrangements are under advisement to greatly increase its facilities for meeting the demand.

Prof. Baldwin will deliver the address before the prohibition society next Tuesday evening in the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Every one should attend.

The straight ticket, and reject all others to trade either on sheriff or representative.

Mr. C. L. Lewis was appointed city attorney by the city council at its meeting Monday night, to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of A. D. Risdon.

For SALE—A good charter oak stove, with reservoir. Large size. At a bargain. Apply to A. Slingerland.

J. W. Tinsman's painting of the sham battle of the Kirksville reunion, has been reproduced by the new artotype process in a handsome shape for framing. Every soldier present on that occasion should have a copy, as a remembrance of the occasion. It is for sale at the bookstores. Secure a copy before the edition is exhausted.

Fine line of corsets at Steer & Robinson's.

All the Rage.

W. J. Wilkes for hardware.

Largest and best assortment of first

class Sewing Machines. Call and see at D. S. GUIPE'S.

A choice lot of confectionery segars and tobacco at D. S. GUIPE'S.

Shibley's Point.

Farmers are busily preparing for winter.

J. W. Shibley, road overseer, is getting our roads in good fix.

Miss Helen Floyd will teach her third school in this district this winter.

We have a good Sabbath school. It was organized by Rev. G. W. Sharp, April 25th. S. F. Stahl, Sup't. T. J. Hickman, assistant, Miss Anna Shibley, Secretary.

Mr. D. Richardson, of Illinois, is visiting at Judge John Shibley's. Young ladies, look out, he's a promising young man.

Ira McRae, who has been visiting his mother in Indiana, has returned.

Jacob H. Shibley is visiting relatives in Arkansas.

Shibley's Point is a lively little business town and wide awake on politics.

A. G.

It's a sad sight to see an old man, gray headed and venerable, drunk on the street, but when he goes whooping and yelling for Hancock and Blinglish it is a sight to make angels weep.

Saturday night—southwest corner square.

What is there in alcoholic intoxicants that make men whoop and yell for "Jeff Davis" in preference to anybody else, is one of those mysteries "no fellow can find out." A drunken republican, you may not believe it but occasionally there is one—seldom if ever makes himself obnoxious, or disgraces his party by yelling for any of its representative leaders—dead or living. We met a republican the other night who was so far gone as to declare he was for "Hancock" and down on "engagers." When sober there isn't a stancher Garfield man in the county. We must confess it puzzles us, and we hope the next session of the social science congress will unravel this psychological puzzle.

Current Political Rumors.

It is rumored there has been considerable sickness in the county since the Indiana election.

It is rumored that if Bro. Andy and Cousin Bill can be pulled through the rest of the ticket may go to—

It is rumored that a certain candidate for sheriff either independent or greenback is to be withdrawn. Rumor has not determined which.

Rumor says that democratic speakers when they go out in the county stump are forced to have an itemized account of their speeches submitted to James who strikes out all that would injure his brother.

It is rumored that the first bloods of democracy have raised a purse to hire a republican to run for congress.

It is rumored that Dr. Johns wishes now he hadn't done it.

It is rumored that P. F. Greenwood will be traded for votes for the independent candidate for circuit judge.

It is rumored that the entire democratic county ticket will be sacrificed to secure a congressman.

It is rumored that the democratic candidate for representative or his friends are willing to trade for votes either congressman Bill or Andy.

It is rumored that F. M. Harrington will be the next representative of Adair county the K. D. to the contrary notwithstanding.

It is rumored that Wm. H. Hatch democratic candidate for congress was once a commissary of Liberty prison where soldiers who wore blue coats were confined.

It is rumored that Wm. H. Hatch received four hundred dollars to lobby through a certain railroad bill. The House Journal says so, but as he is one of the royal blood it ought not to be investigated.

The Western.

This superior Theatre troop has consented to again visit this place and will be here Monday night Oct. 25th. Let them be welcomed back with a full house.

New Goods—The largest stock of Dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, hats and caps, and notions in town, arriving daily at W. B. Harlan's. I am now offering the largest and most complete stock of goods ever offered in Kirksville, and at prices lower than any house in town. Come and be convinced, we mean what we say.

W. B. HARLAN.

Mr. J. Edmiston, the accomplished and popular tailor, has changed his quarters, and will be found hereafter at W. B. Harlan's. A full line of the latest and very best dress goods is kept and suits made to order on short notice. If you want a fashionable, handsome and neat fitting suit, call.

If you want a good suit, Edmiston will suit you.

Greentop Graphics.

Trade is brisk in town.

Mr. Keessecker team ran away last week, threw him off the wagon, and broke his leg. He is improving.

John Sparks has purchased the H. Gatlin farm.

A. M. Land has bought the W. G. Wells farm and was moving last week.

W. S. Gatlin has improved his store front with a porch.

F. J. Tice is putting up an addition to his residence.

We are glad to note these improvements in our town.

Mr. Oschner has moved to town.

M. Weston is building Dr. Sickle's new residence.

Geo. Sandford is clerking for A. M. Lind & Co.

We notice that Capt. Toler has purchased two of the finest Leicester shire sheep, ever brought to this part of the country.

Mrs. S. W. Wright left last week for New York.

Mr. Lewis's Hinch is moving his mill west of this place to Macon county.

R. R. Wells returned last week from St. Louis.

M. A. Orr says its a boy and weighs 15 pounds.

Mrs. P. Owens has been sick several days.

Rev. Davis and family left Tuesday of last week, on a visit to Illinois.

Mr. Dewitt shipped three car loads of hay recently.

Since the above was written I send you the following items:

R. R. Wells has shipped two car loads of oats.

A. M. Lind, two cars of corn and one of oats.

T. B. DeWit one car of hay and S. B. Lind one of hogs.

A Domestic Episode.

A little episode occurred in the house of one of our citizens, one evening this week, which a Graphic reporter thinks should not go unmentioned. The wife is an industrious, energetic woman, while the husband is too much inclined to take the world as it comes, and sorely tries the patience and temper of his wife sometimes.

On the day preceding this particular evening, which was wash day, while at dinner the wife told the husband that there was no wood chopped, and that she would have to have a fire most of the afternoon. The dinner finished, the man quietly walked off up town, without preparing the wood, and was not seen any more at home until after supper. The wife managed to get through her washing, got supper, put the children to bed early, tidied up the room, and sat down to her sewing before the husband came in. The wife looked up at him as he came in, with a smile, but there was a species of sarcasm beneath that smile, while he took a seat by the stove, in which there was a comfortable fire. Presently he began to move uneasily and asked:

"Ain't supper ready?"

"Yes, and over long ago."

"Well, I want something to eat, I'm hungry."

"I am sorry," was the reply, "but there is nothing cooked, the children seemed hungry, and there was not enough left to do any good, so I gave it to the dog."

"You don't mean to say that you have got me no supper," he said, angrily.

"That is just what I mean," replied the wife, with quiet firmness.

"Then you'll get me some, and that—quick!" he roared.

She had never openly defied him before, though she had been making the principal part of the living for years. But her lips were now firmly set, and her eyes flashed, if he hadn't been so angry he could have seen that she meant something more than common.

But he began to swear terribly, undaunted she left her seat, and though her hand was not large, she made his ears ring with howl after blow.

"I have stood this thing," she said, just as long as I am going to, I have everything to do, even the wood to chop, and you get no supper to-night, and no breakfast in the morning, until you get up and chop the wood."

The fellow took his seat very much astonished, and soon went off to bed without his supper. That woman has not had to chop any more wood since, and her husband has been busy at work ever since. Usually we are opposed to woman whipping her husband, but in this instance we think the woman justifiable.

The Last Club Meeting.

There will be only one more club meeting, which will be on Thursday next. Let every one turn out.

But one week longer remains before the election—the two great parties are in line for the struggle but the Quincy Store still keeps the even tenor of its way. Tis there the wants of the community are supplied by a constantly replenished stock of groceries, provisions, fruits, nuts, candies, canned goods, queensware, cutlery, etc., besides all the necessities of life, such as fine segars and tobacco. Give them a call.

SURPRISE.

The seventieth birthday of the Rev. James Herbert, pastor of the United Brethren church at Brashear, was celebrated in a happy manner, on Friday the 15th inst. He and Mrs. Herbert being away from home during the day, his house was taken possession of by the ladies of the town and when they returned late in the evening there were about thirty of his aged friends including the ministers of the place, at his house to bid them welcome to a most bountiful supper. The most aged of the community were invited and partook of the feast of good things with them. After supper and a social interview, father Herbert preached to a large and attentive congregation, who had gathered at the church according to the appointment. At the conclusion of the service the Rev. Samuel Carothers in behalf of the donors, presented Mr. Herbert with a fine BEAVER OVERCOAT and other valuable articles. The scene brought tears to the eyes of many, and impressed all "that it is more blessed to give than to receive." S. C.

Let no republican in the 2nd district fail to vote for J. Q. Johnson for county judge. He is just the man for the office, honest, upright and well qualified.

Look out for the Western Theatre Company. They will be here Monday.

District Medical Association.

The next meeting of the 14th congressional medical association will be held at Kirksville Nov. 10, 1886. A full attendance and an interesting meeting is expected, and as this is the meeting for the annual election of officers, it is necessary that all the counties in this district be fully represented.

Dr. B. J. Kendall, Enosburgh Falls, N. Y., is the inventor of the "Kendall's Spavin Cure" now used with the greatest success throughout the United States for both man and beast. Underhill & Kirtledge, Concord, N. H., have cured and removed a bad Spavin with Kendall's Spavin Cure, and this is only the experience of thousands we might mention if we had space here, and it is also being used now with wonderful success on human flesh as well as for beast.
